Jonesboro High School

Jonesboro, Arkansas

Six hundred eighteen students arrived on the campus last fall to start the biggest year of all in the history of Jonesboro High School. They survived the unusually long winter of icy temperatures and snow to push aside the blankets of white and welcome the green of spring. Throughout the year classes disciplined us in work and in study. Activities thrilled us and gave us a chance to cheer our team to victory or inspired pride in JHS spirit when a battle was lost. We remember together the "class feuds," meetings of the classes to wrack our brains for schemes to raise money, the endless bull sessions and gab-fests . . .

... the battle over the bonfire and our ultimate victory enabling us to enjoy the event — battle scars and all. Homecoming festivities, rallies and kickoffs, report cards, the Junior-Senior Prom, the spring picnic, stolen books, fire drills, class photos, and the Hurricane Ball will remain forever a part of our memories.

We ran to classes, enjoyed plays and pay assemblies, cut a few classes, listened to "Randy's Record Shop," read High Times headlines, and burned the midnight oil the night before examinations. And underneath the rich experiences, the deep satisfaction of achievement, the privilege of a free education, we had a mutual bond -- JHS.

Foreword

The staff's aim in the publication of this yearbook is to present the over-all picture of our school activities, both regular and extra-curricular. Here is our story told in pictures. May it bring you happy memories!

Part One

HERE WE HAVE JHS

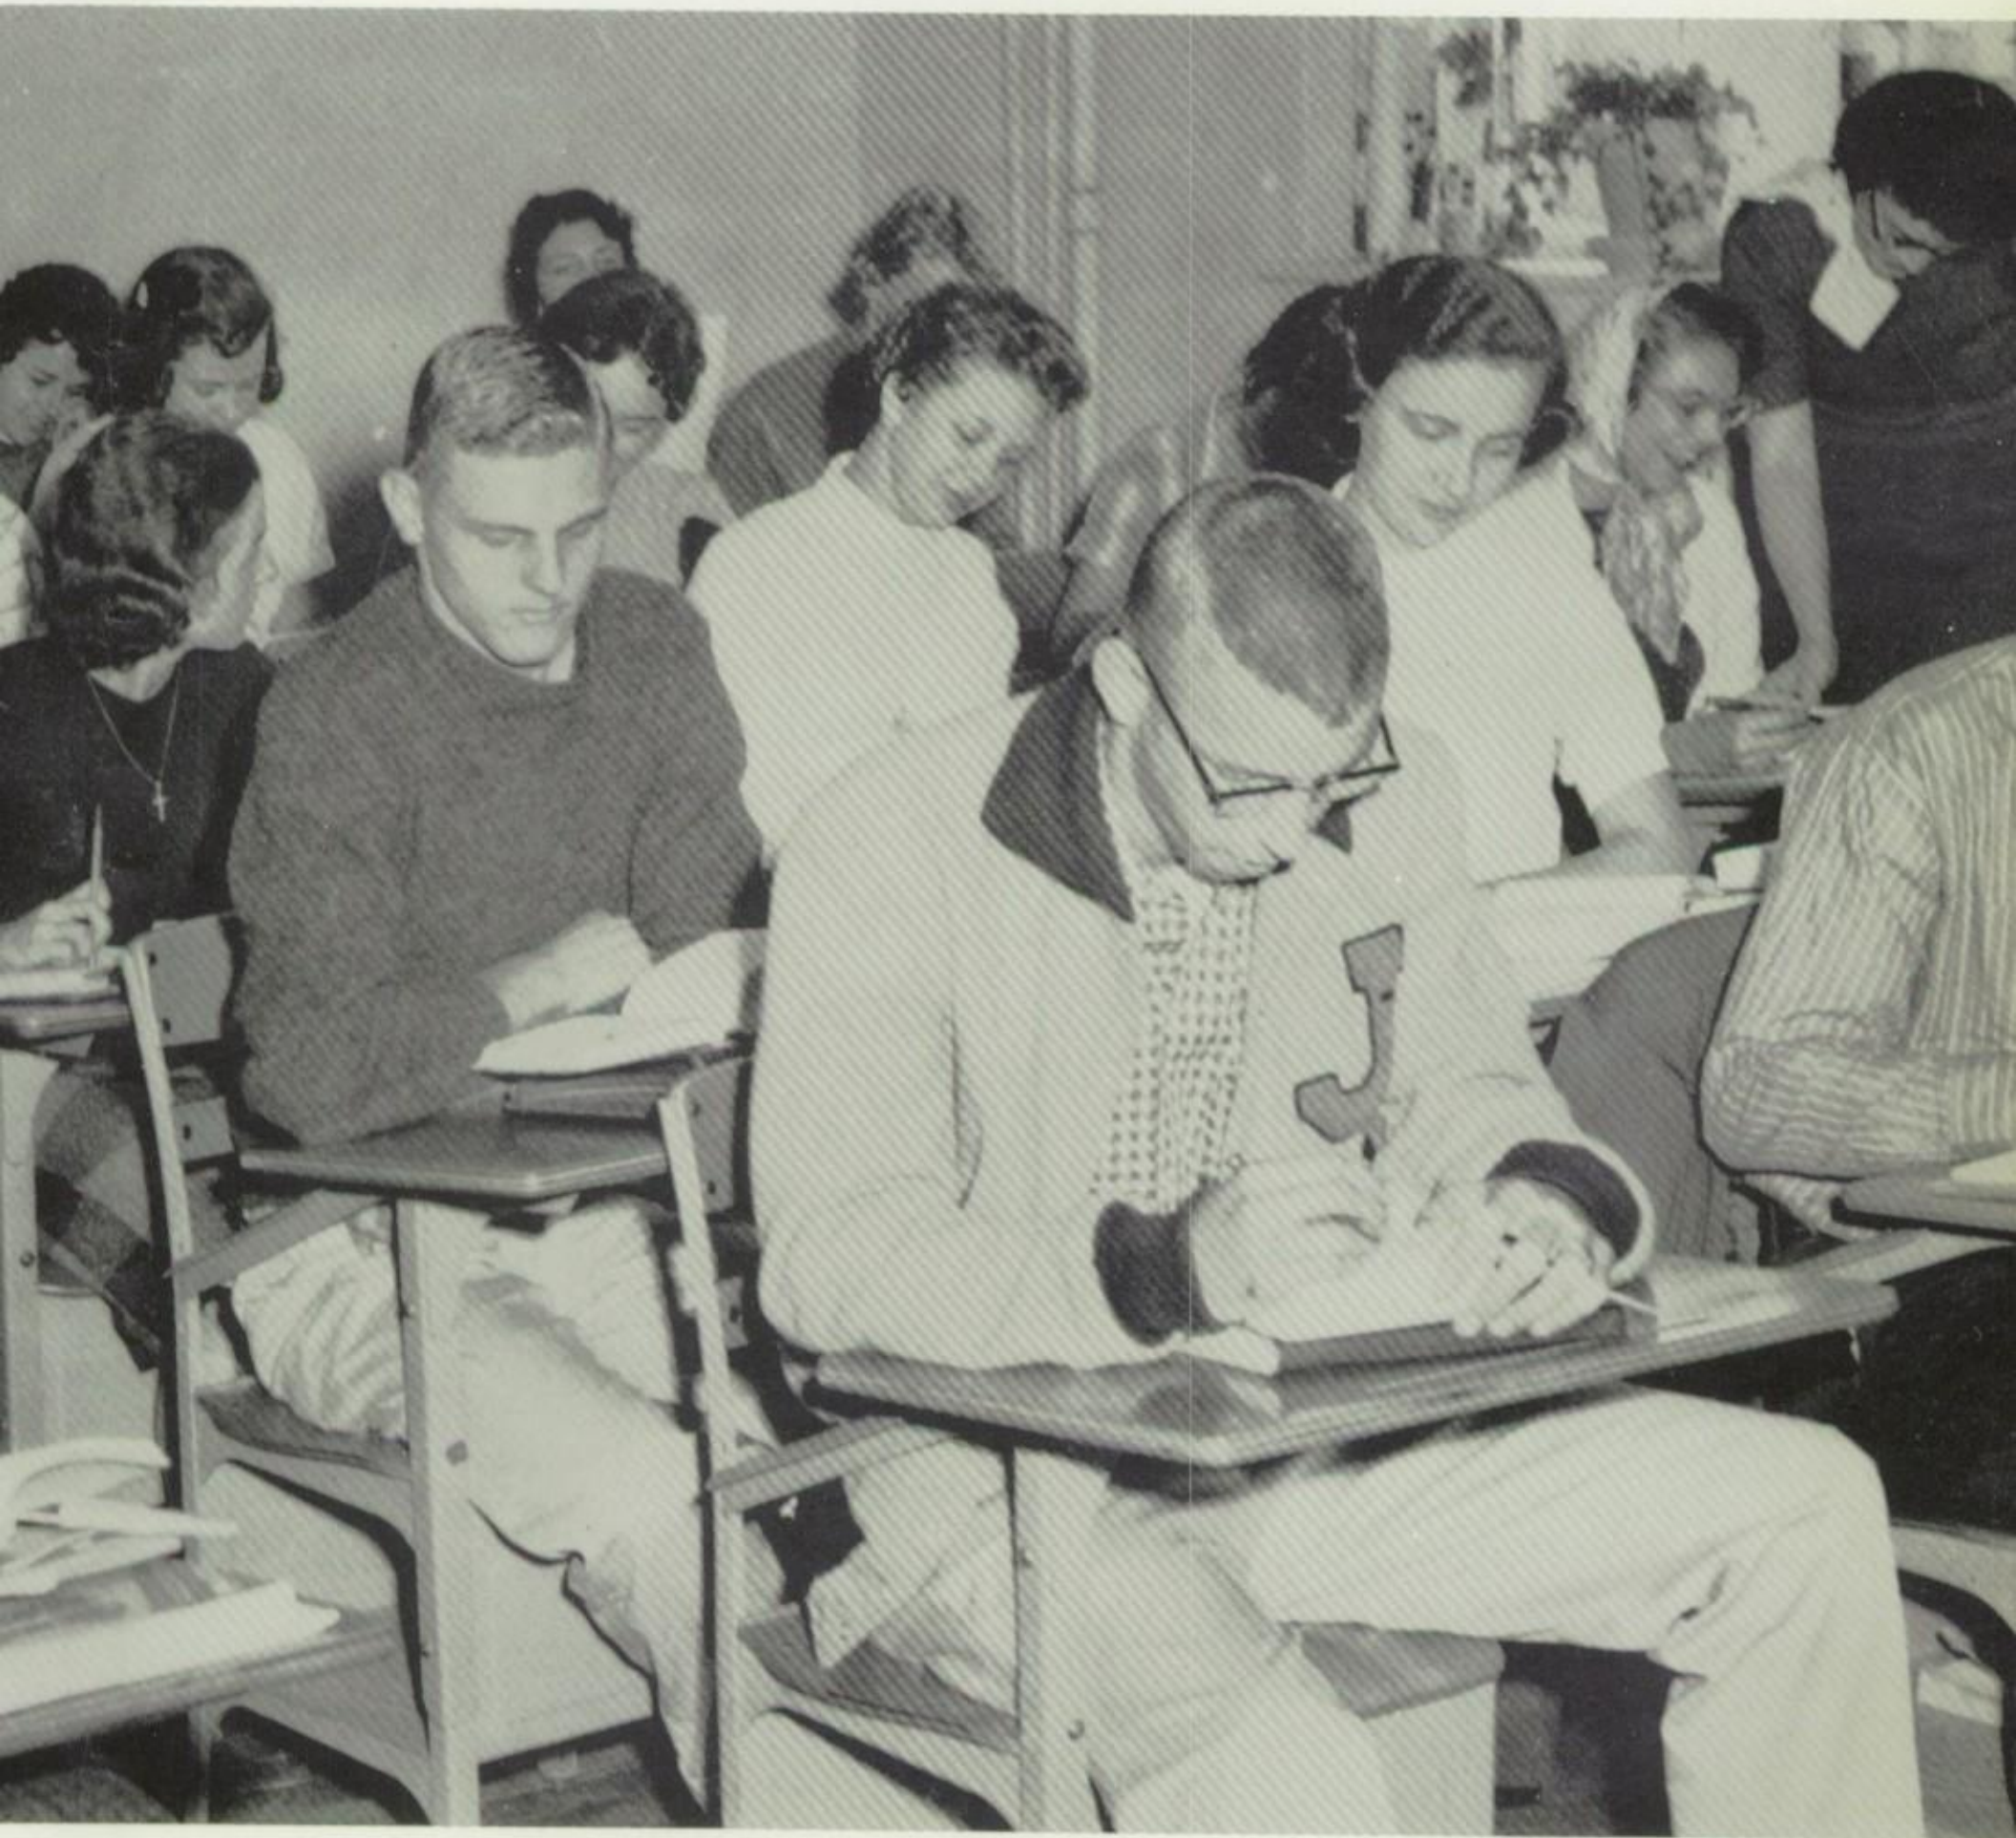

*Dear old Jonesboro High
We will always be true,
And your praises we always will sing
When on life's stormy seas
We at last have embarked,
Honor to your name we'll try to bring.
And if we should wander
From here afar,
We will never forget as years go by
That our Alma Mater
Is still just as dear
As when we were here in Jonesboro High*

Efficient Board Members Direct Our Schools

School boards come across some enormous problems, and they spend many of their free hours discussing them. They must keep an eye on their new building projects, then worry about how they are going to be paid for. Many other problems fall on the shoulders of the school board — overcrowded school rooms, setting school standards, and approving new teachers. Not many people would like to take over the job of having all those problems and making decisions that may influence the lives of everyone within the school district. The picture below was made while construction was taking place on the new music and physical educational building.

Parents and Teachers Work Hand in Hand

PTA officers are: Mr. and Mrs. Vance Scurlock, co-secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Johnston, co-president; Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Farabee, co-vice-president.

The Parent-Teachers Association is an organization composed of teachers and parents of students in Jonesboro High School. The parents and teachers work together to improve school conditions. Programs of special interest to both parents and teachers were presented throughout the school year. This organization works to build a strong unity between the home life and school life of the students.

In the picture below, the parents and teachers are shown as they enjoyed a social get-together after the first PTA meeting of the year at which they discussed a mutual interest—the students of Jonesboro High School.

Experienced Hands at the Helm

Mr. Lloyd Goff, superintendent of the Jonesboro Special School District, is one of those competent, brilliant individuals who can still manage to be friendly and personal. Modesty, and a genuine happiness at being a part of the Jonesboro school system are evident in his conversation. Mr. Goff holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Arkansas College at Batesville, Arkansas, and received his master's degree from the University of Missouri.

For approximately two years, Mrs. Diggs has been a part of the business staff in Mr. Goff's office. When asked about her job as secretary, Mrs. Diggs replied, "We're always busy in this office. There is always something to do." In spite of her many duties, Mrs. Diggs always has a cheerful smile for everyone.

The Jonesboro Special School District is privileged to have such an efficient, experienced man for its accountant as Mr. John Norred. He keeps the financial reports accurately, plans the budgets, and is the school district treasurer.

GRACE ELECTRIC COMPANY

He Gives of His Experience and Wisdom

With an almost uncanny ability to see through alibis and excuses, and with a ready humor for any situation, Mr. Geis, our principal, is a combination of brisk efficiency and profound integrity. He holds a Master of Science in Education degree from the University of Arkansas. His discerning nature is a school asset in managing administrative duties.

Mrs. Peggy Henderson, secretary to the principal, is the "right-hand man" to Mr. Geis. With her good nature and genuine sense of humor, Mrs. Henderson is able to perform cheerfully the many duties placed in her hands. Her friendly smile and witty remarks make a trip to the office much more pleasant.

The Faculty Contributes to Our Memories.

Teachers discuss classroom problems in faculty meetings, and find the solutions from the experiences of fellow teachers.

Maintenance and Custodians

Mr. Ewing Graham and Mr. Ellie W. Moody do the maintenance work for the Jonesboro Special School District.

The janitors, Mr. Powers, Mr. Simmons, Mr. French and Mr. McGinnis, play a very important part in keeping our building "ship-shape" at all times. Long after the students and teachers are home, their busy hands are emptying waste baskets, washing windows and sweeping floors. They are also keeping an eye out for other things that might need to be done so our citizens can be proud of the building and grounds of Jonesboro High School.

Cafeteria

The hot-lunch program is under the capable supervision of Mrs. Polly Black. The group of ladies under her direction work long hours preparing well-balanced meals that are served to the students and teachers of our school. These ladies, whether cooking the food or serving it, are always ready to greet you with a happy smile and a cheery "hello."

Preceding the school year, the officers met at Mrs. Aston's home to plan the activities of the year for the class. Afterwards, they got their daily calories from a generous serving of ice cream and chocolate brownies.

Our School Provides High Scholastic Achievements

Outstanding seniors were chosen this year from the various departments in our school. These seniors were considered outstanding not only by their academic ability but also by their attitudes, dependability, initiative, etc., toward a particular course. Teachers of each department selected the senior most outstanding in their particular department.

BLACK AND GOLD

*The campus bonfire all aglow,
Students passing to and fro,
These are the things that we cherish more—
A junior prom or a football score.*

*Gathered in this one short year,
Laughter bright—and then a tear,
And for all these we give our thanks
To thee—our JHS.*

*Black and Gold are the colors we love,
Treasures untold that come from above.
From the hill we call home we shall proudly proclaim
Praises to thee—our Alma Mater's name.*

Toward New Horizons

Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of girls who are studying homemaking in high school. "To learn to do by doing" could very well be the motto of this club. The members realize the importance of being able to run their future homes with skill and efficiency. They believe that helping to make happy homes now, as well as in the future, is one of the most important things youth can do for democracy.

This organization strives for the betterment of Jonesboro High School.

Among the projects which were sponsored this year by the Student Council were the Slave Day, Teacher's Appreciation Day, and the religious assemblies.

Officers of all clubs and organizations in Jonesboro High School were invited to attend the annual Student Council workshop which was held in September.

N.H.S. Strives to Promote

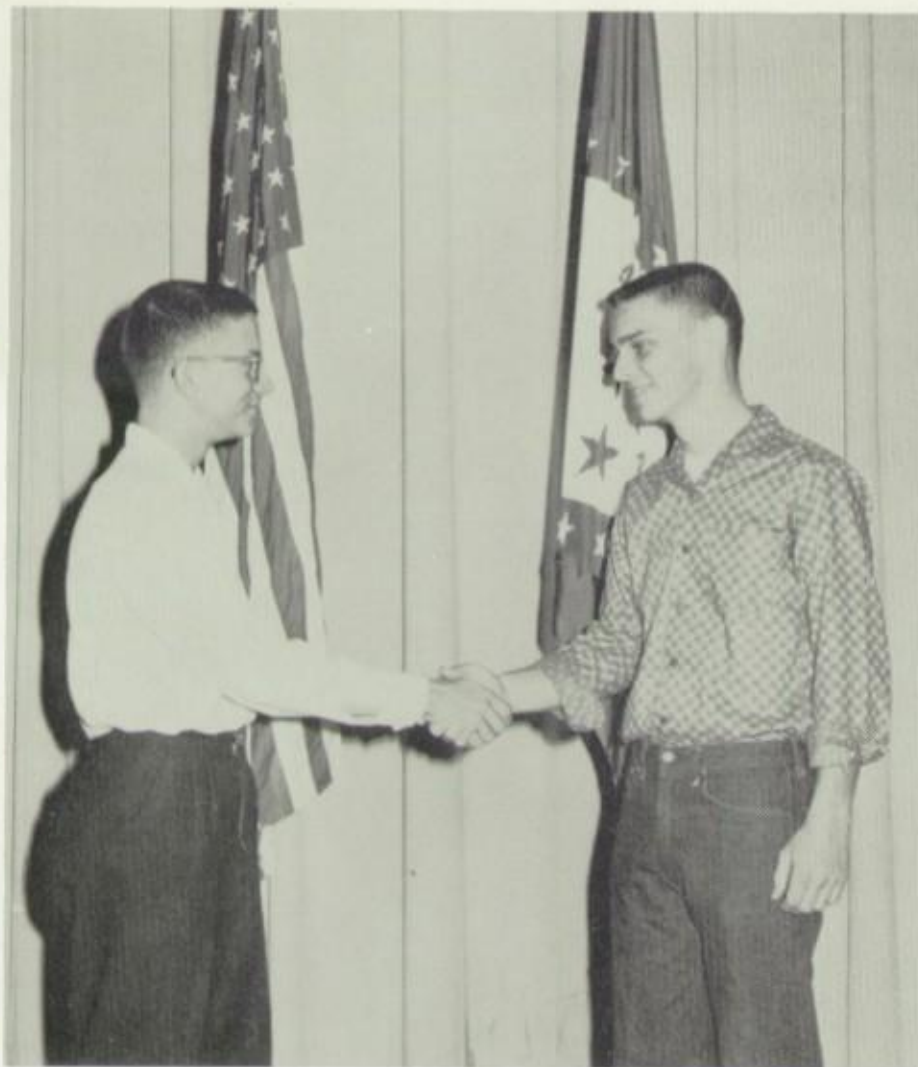

One of the biggest honors that can be bestowed upon a student at J.H.S. is the coveted membership into the National Honor Society. Each year hopeful juniors anxiously await the announcement of next year's National Honor Society members. The ones chosen are proud of their election into this society, since the qualifications for entrance are based upon scholarship, character, leadership, and service. To be eligible for membership into the N.H.S., a student must have at least a "B" average. The aim of this method of selecting is to present to the most deserving, well-rounded individual in the senior class the privilege of membership in the Jonesboro Chapter of the National Honor Society.

Several projects were sponsored this year by the National Honor Society. One which has become an annual project was the making and selling of mums for the Homecoming and Thanksgiving games.

The N.H.S. attempts each year to have at least three assemblies, consisting of the induction of their officers and new members, a pay-assembly, and a citizenship program. Following a week of stressing citizenship, the N.H.S. conducted a program at which speeches on citizenship were made.

Each year the society attempts to make enough money to present a worthwhile gift to the school. This year they presented the school with a set of flags.

Opens Door to a Profession

One of the highlights of the year was the F.T.A. banquet, held at West Park. After a delicious dinner, presentations were made. Rebecca Robertson, past president of the F.T.A. is being presented a bracelet by Jerlyn Murray, F.T.A. president. Linda Cathcart who was chosen favorite future teacher by the club, was presented a bracelet by Mrs. Gregson, club sponsor. A delightful program followed.

"Am I interested in teaching as a profession? Could I fulfill the requirements of a teacher? In what grade level would I best teach?" Numerous questions such as these were answered by panel members at meetings of the Future Teachers of America during this year's activities.

The Jonesboro chapter of the Future Teachers of America was organized in 1957. The F.T.A. promotes interest in and the recognition of the advantages, benefits, and joys of the teaching profession.

Future teachers gain experience in the field of teaching by helping Mrs. Gregson grade test papers during their free periods.

Students taking auto mechanics have the opportunity to join the Future Tradesmen of Arkansas. All the members of this club share a common interest—motors and mechanics. At the beginning of the year, the officers and new members were installed into the club. To gain knowledge and experience in auto mechanics, as well as to determine the safety of the cars, members of the club conducted a "safety check" of the students' cars parked on the parking lot. They also held their annual fish fry. One of the highlights of the year was the motor which was on exhibit at the Science Fair. The motor was assembled by the club members. The crashing of cymbals, tuning of horns, shuffling of chairs, and the hearing of familiar sounds which once came from the old band room no longer echo through the classrooms of JHS. The band is very proud of its new private location in the Physical Education and Music Building, and Jonesboro High School is equally proud of its band and choral groups.

The annual band queen election was held this year, and the band chose Judy McAdams as its queen. Judy was crowned by the band president, Fred Thomas, in a ceremony preceding the Thanksgiving Day football game at Kays' Field.

Music Is Their Aim

Noise! Never was there so much noise! Between the bell's ring and the conductor's "Silence!" there is a deafening activity with which even Times Square on Broadway cannot compete. At this time it sounds bad; but an instant later, with slender baton in hand, Mr. Rohulich raps for silence — then there is music. It is music created by a group of people who have worked, and worked hard, for a long time to learn "Every Good Boy Does Fine." Practice has been worth every bit of time and labor spent, for if they had not worked diligently, these students would not have those first place records and pride in accomplishment that is now theirs "to have and to hold."

These officers, Fred Thomas, president; James Crawford, vice-president; Joe Lee Caldwell, secretary; and Sandra Johnson (not present at camera time), treasurer; handle the business affairs of the band.

These ambitious bandsters, having received the honor of becoming a member of the All-State Band, enjoyed their participation in this highly regarded event which was held at the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville. Extra! Extra! Hurricane Announces Popularity Winners

"Who got what?" was the question students asked as they rushed around getting ready for the first annual Hurricane Ball, at which the outcome of the Who's Who contest was announced. Annually, the Hurricane staff sponsors a popularity contest, in which thirty-one JHS students cop titles. The winners are elected by popular vote of the students.

SUE FINCHER: Chosen as Miss JHS and Miss Popularity, Sue numbers among her outstanding activities and honors this year the positions of Hurricane Beauty and Homecoming Queen.

TYLER SWINDLE: Tyler is the proud owner of two titles: Mr. JHS and Mr. Success. Besides being an outstanding member of the band, he is very popular among the students and was elected president of the student body this year.

"In this, our Jonesboro High School, are memories so dear." Sue Fincher and Tyler Swindle as MR. and MISS JHS.

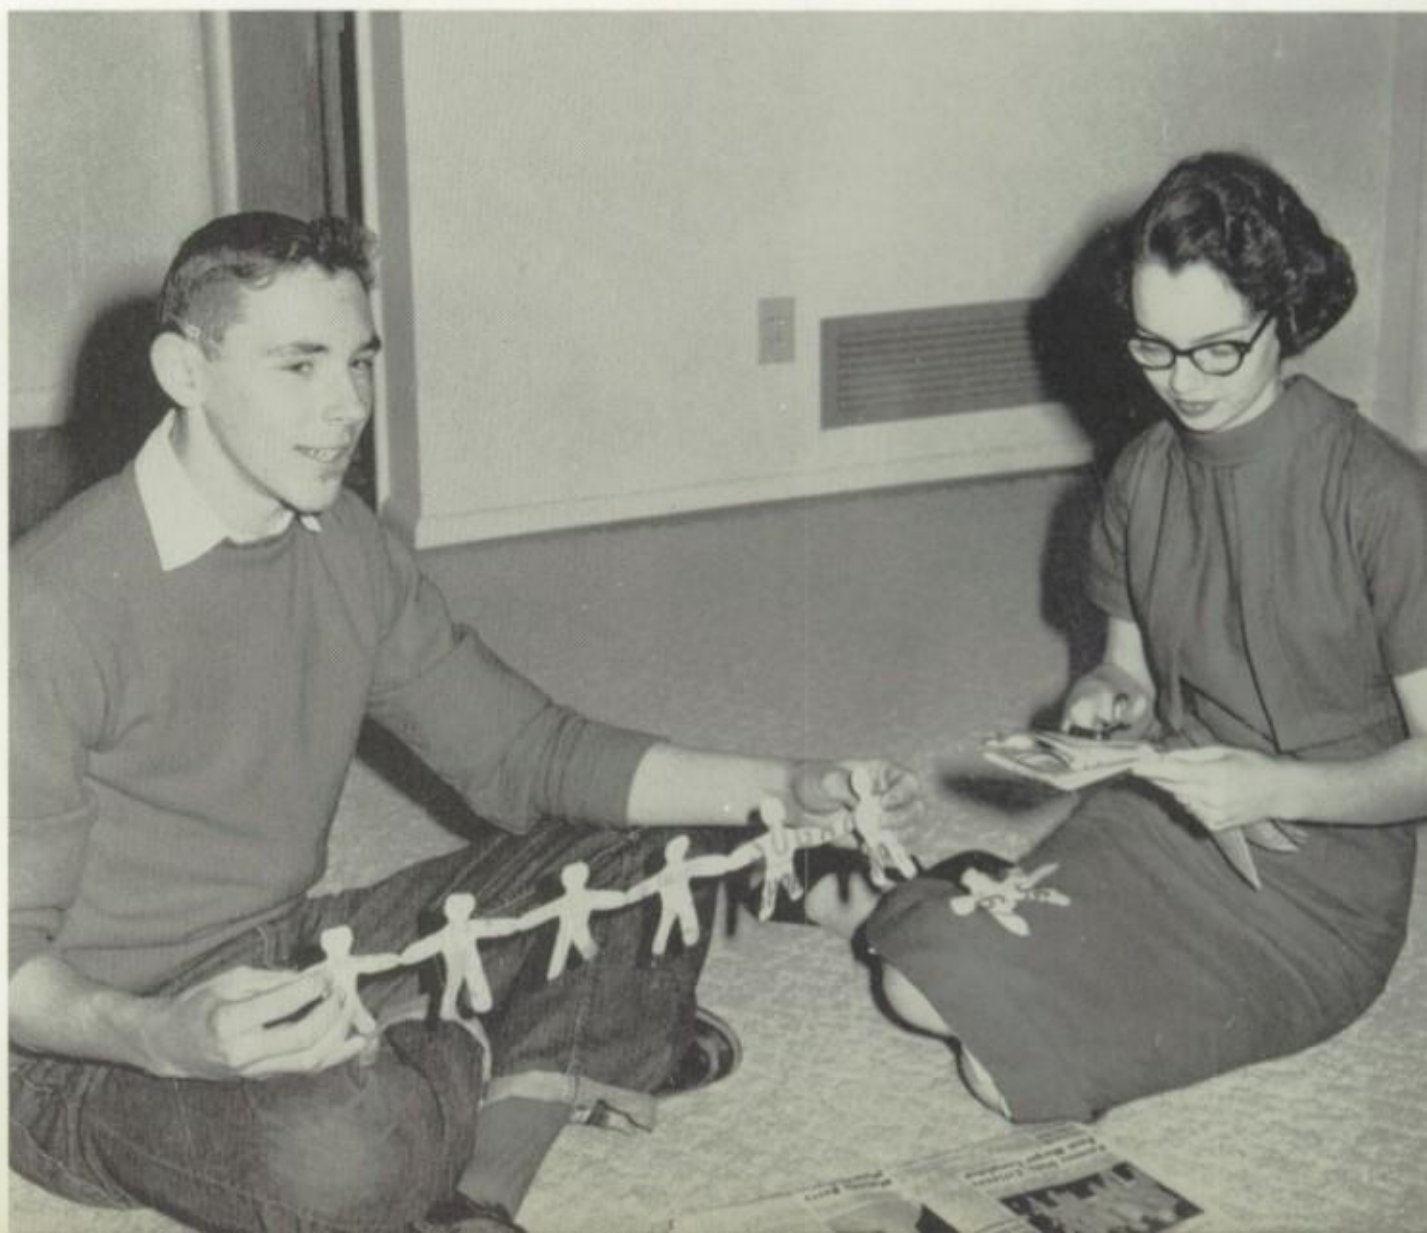

BOB CAMERON: Popular Bob goes by the name of Mr. Popularity, Mr. Versatility, and Mr. It. He has won many honors, is president of the Key Club, was a delegate to Boys' State, and winner of the annual football sportsmanship award.

"Anyone care for an autograph?" ask Sue Fincher and Bob Cameron, MR. and MISS POPULARITY.

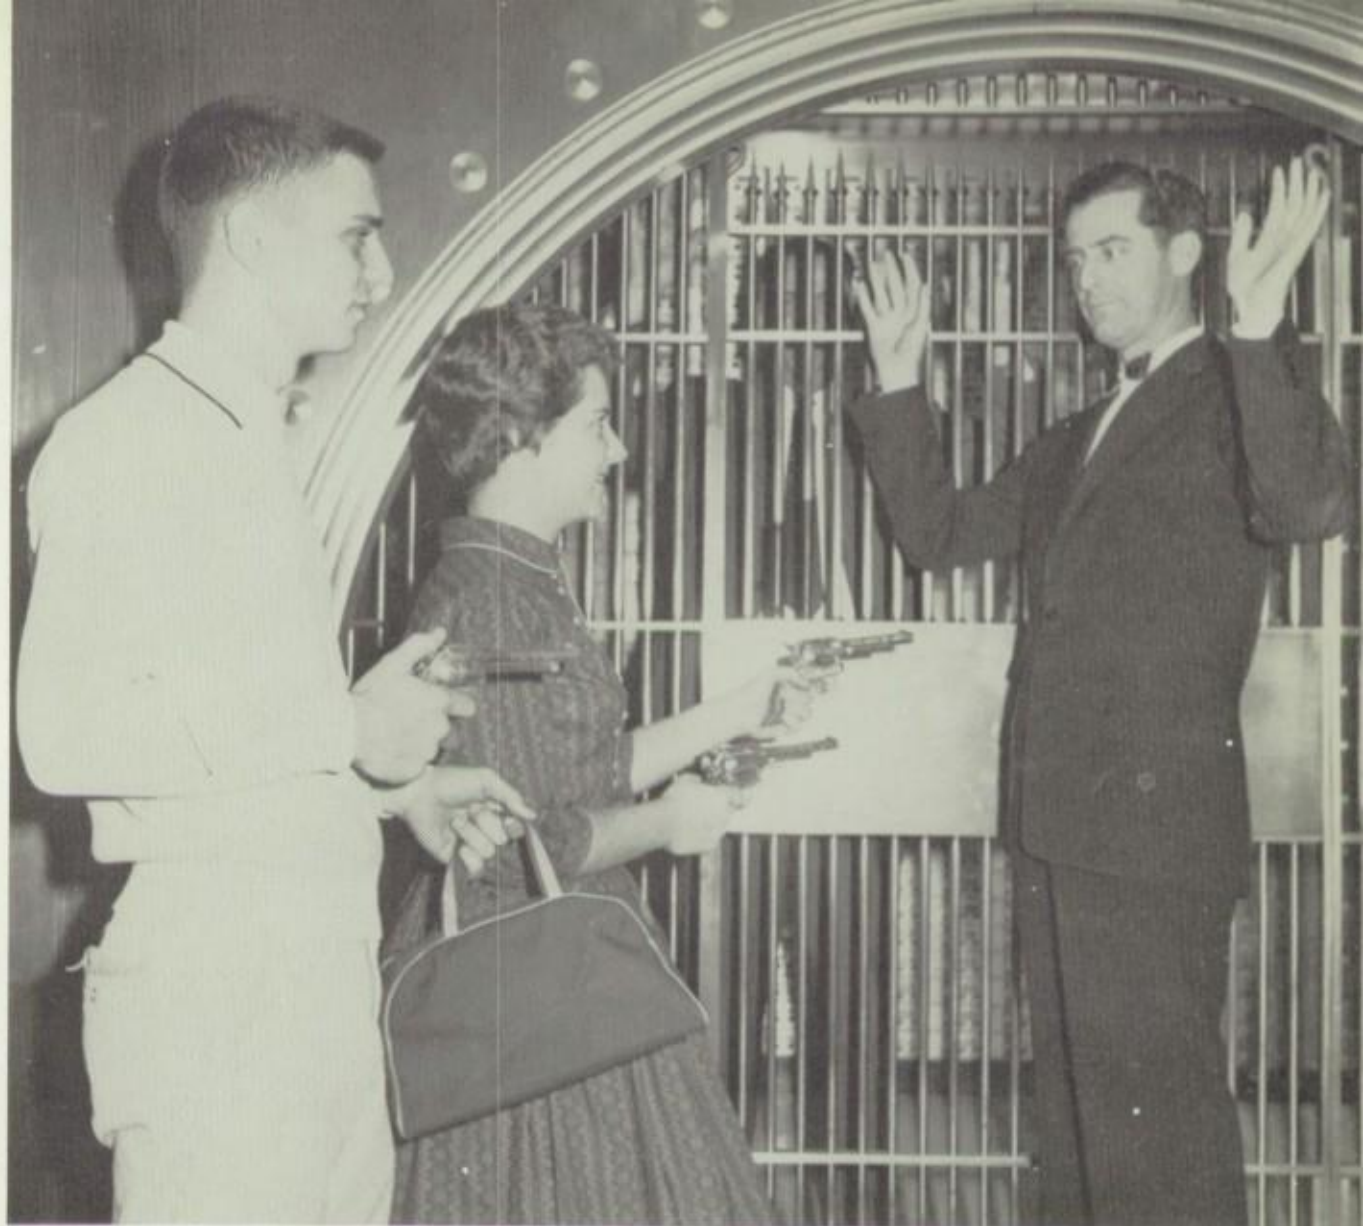

Popularity Contest Names

"Oh well, talent isn't everything," comment Eloise Pack and Bob Harrelson, MR. and MISS TALENT.

ELOISE PACK: Eloise, chosen as Miss Talent, well deserves this title because of her varied abilities. Her most outstanding talents are singing and playing the piano. She is also well known for her friendliness and cheery nature.

BOB HARRELSON: Although Bob hasn't attended JHS long, he has stepped right in and shown us what an outstanding boy he really is. His singing ability brought him the honor of being chosen Mr. Talent in the Who's Who election. Bob formerly sang with his own band in North Little Rock.

"Reach for the sky, pardner," demand Gayle Vowels and Tyler Swindle as MR. and MISS SUCCESS.

the "Personality Plus"

"But the train just can't run off and leave us. We're only thirty minutes late!" scream Judy McAdams and James Riley Crawford, MR. and MISS DEPENDABILITY.

GAYLE VOWELS: Chosen as Miss Genius and Miss Success, Gayle, who is a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship contest, really deserves her titles. She is a member of the Science Club and the National Honor Society.

JUDY McADAMS: Judy, elected Miss Dependability, certainly fits her title. She can always be depended upon to do anything necessary in her curricular and extracurricular activities. Judy had the honor of reigning as JHS band queen this year.

"Mix a little of this and a little of that until you have a little of everything." This is the recipe for Jo Ann Johnson and Bob Cameron as MR. and MISS VERSATILITY.

"Out for a night on the town," are Nora Dean Scott and Kenny Aston, MR. ESQUIRE and MISS FASHION PLATE.

JAMES CRAWFORD: Chosen as Mr. Dependability, "Rile" is one of the most popular boys in his class. He is a member of the National Honor Society, Key Club, and is president of the senior class.

KENNY ASTON: While maintaining an "A" average, Kenny has still managed to remain one of the most active and outstanding boys in JHS. He was elected Mr. Genius and Mr. Esquire by his classmates this year. Among his varied activities this year were Radio Club president, Key Club, National Honor Society, and Boys' State delegate.

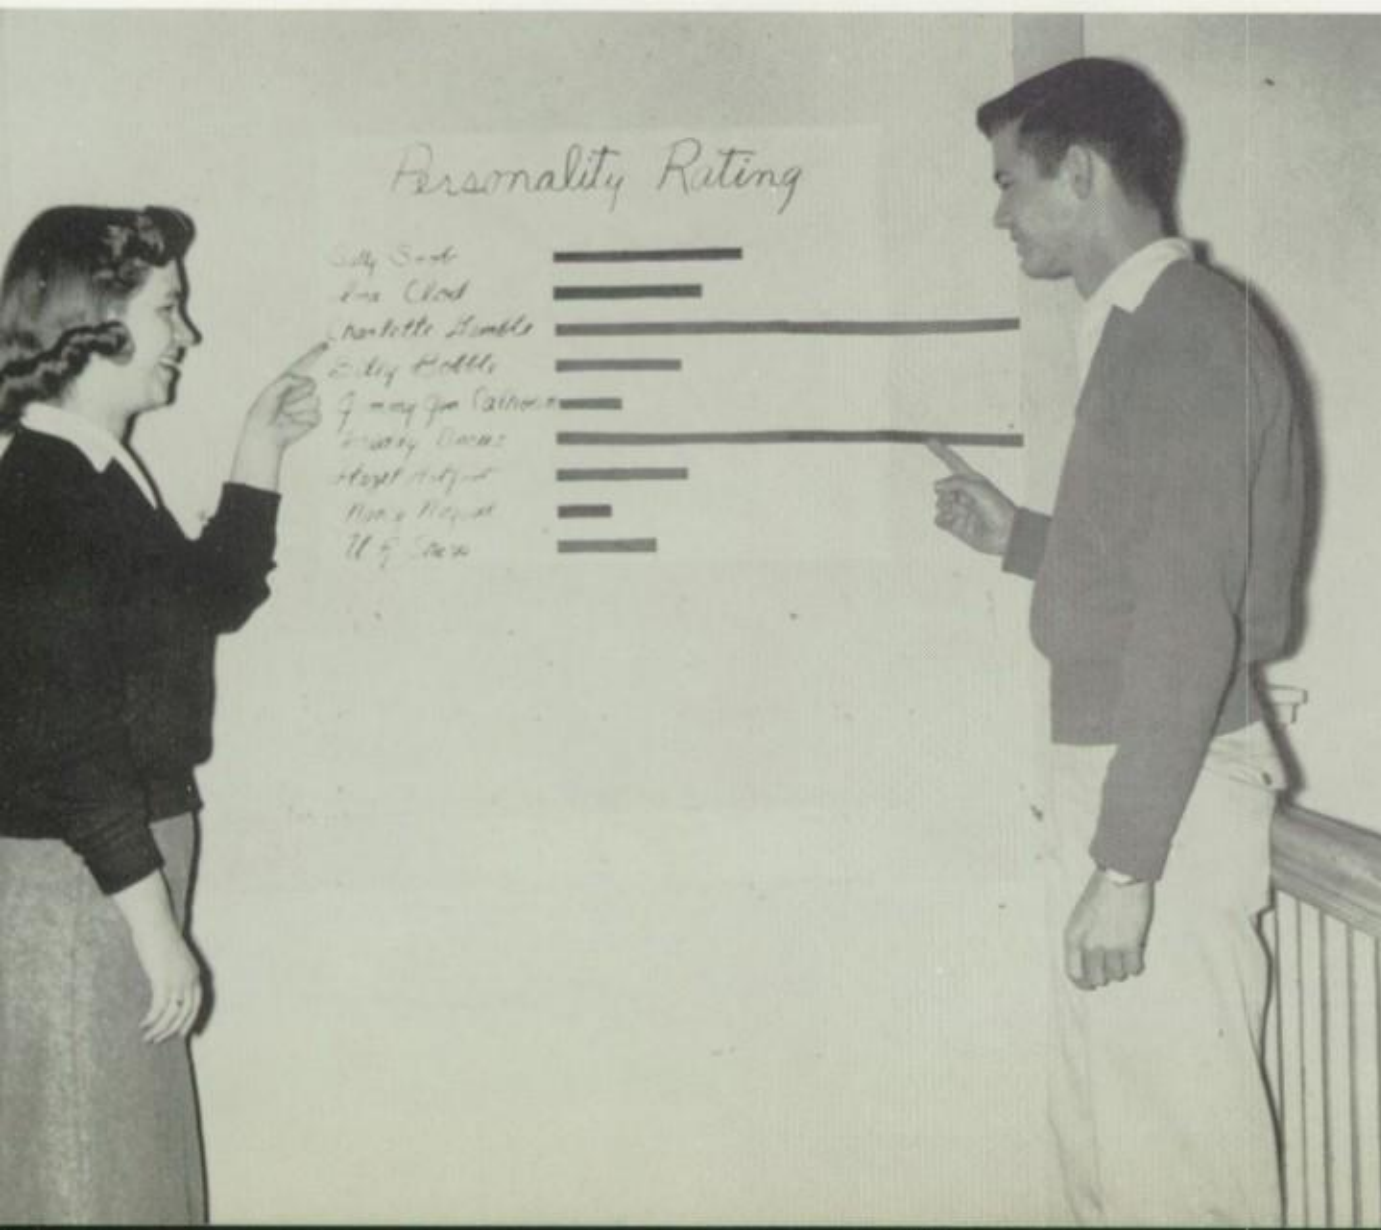

NORA DEAN SCOTT: Because of her neat appearance and attractive clothes, Nora Dean was chosen Miss Fashion Plate. She is a member of the Radio Club and the Pep Squad.

Shhh! The brains are at work. Gayle Vowels and Kenny Aston as MR. and MISS GENIUS.

Elected by Popular Vote

"Seems like everything is going up these days," state Charlotte Gamble and Fred Dacus, MR. and MISS PERSONALITY.

JO ANN JOHNSON: Her vivacious personality and her ability to 'do well in whatever she undertakes caused Jo Ann to be chosen Miss Versatility. As head cheerleader, cheerleading takes up quite a bit of her time. She has also been chosen Key Club royalty and a Hurricane Beauty.

CHARLOTTE GAMBLE: Charlotte's cute and friendly personality won for her the titles of Miss Personality and Miss Wit. She is student body treasurer and president of Tri-Hi-Y.

FRED DACUS: Personality plus is certainly what won the title of Mr. Personality for Fred. He is an active member of the National Honor Society, Key Club, and a member of the Golden Gang Football squad.

"It's the bathing suit that counts," agree Patsy Brown and Bob Cameron, MR. IT and MISS OOMPH.

JHS Picks the "Cream of the Crop"

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," say Charlotte Gamble and Joe Lee Caldwell, MR. and MISS WIT.

PATSY BROWN: Patsy, drum majorette of the band, well deserves the title of Miss Oomph. She is also in the Pep Squad and the Radio Club.

JOE LEE CALDWELL: Named Mr. Wit, Joe Lee, president of the National Honor Society, merits his title because of his friendliness, good humor, and quick wit.

Colorful Hurricane Ball —

Nine excited beauties gather around the fireplace after the presentation. The first beauty, Lillian Jones, with her escort, Larry Lewis, is seated in the center. The other beauties and their escorts are: Shirley Gillespie and Jack Shelton; Sharon Cherry and Charles Perkins; Judy Neal and Johnny Bunch; Jo Ann Johnson and Jack Davis; Sue Fincher and Bob Cameron; Janet Burnett and Leon Barnes; Sherry Heringer and Clyde Grissom; and Sue Bittle and Jon Curzon.

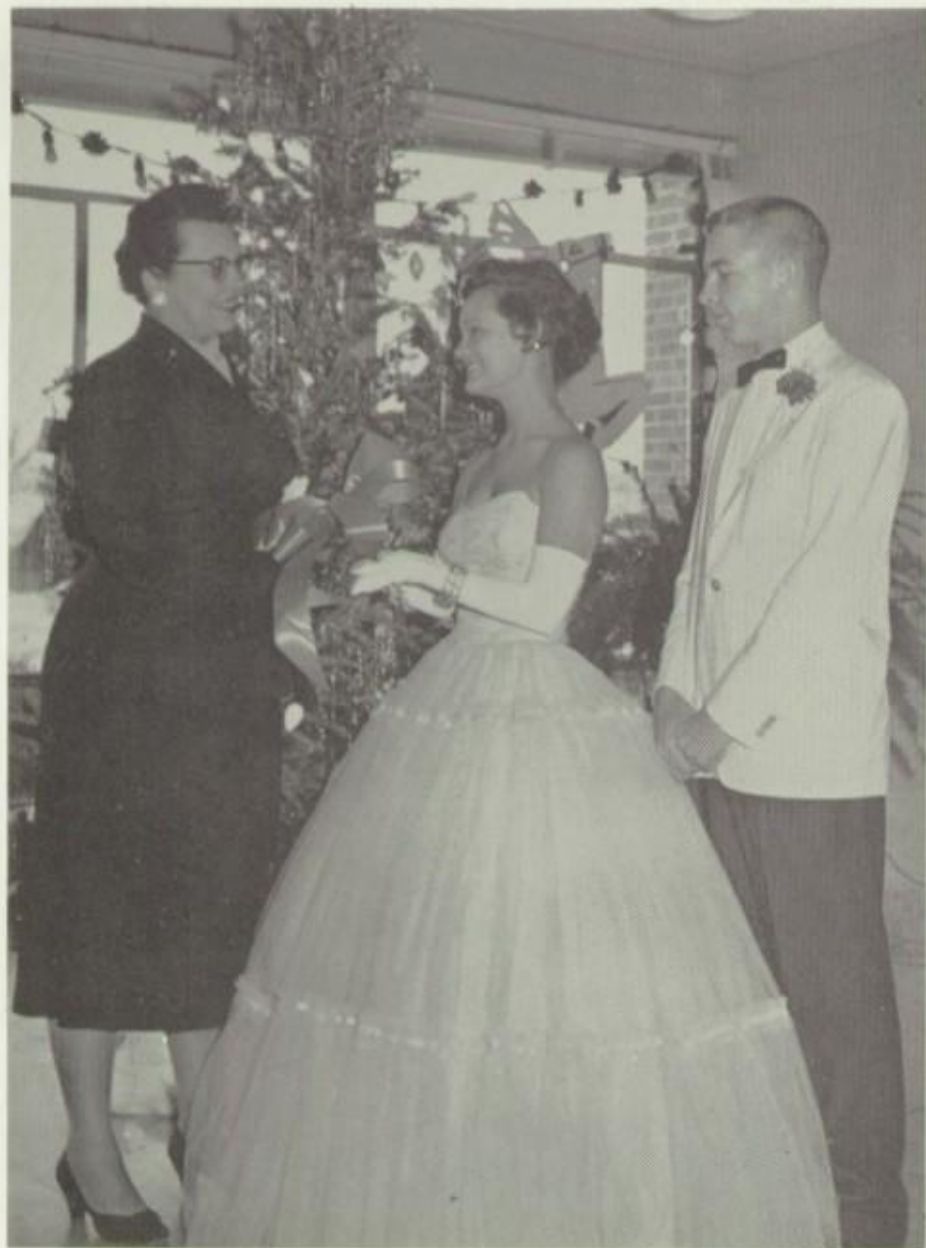

"'Twas the night before Christmas, and as a rule, not a creature was stirring 'cept at East School"—The event was the annual Hurricane Ball for the presentation of Who's Who and beauties. Each member of the student body was asked to hand in on a secret ballot his selection of the Who's Who and the nine most beautiful girls. The names of the winners were kept secret until intermission at the dance.

Parents of the beauties serve punch and cookies to the students at the intermission after the presentation of the beauties.

Highlight of the Christmas Season

Lillian Jones, overjoyed with having been chosen first beauty, accepts a dozen American Beauty roses from Mrs. Kate Fryer. Her escort, Larry Lewis, looks on.

This isn't the first year Lillian has received honors for her beauty, having placed first last year and second the year before. Beauty isn't all she is known for. Her pleasing personality and witty remarks will long be remembered at J.H.S. Lillian is a senior and a member of various clubs.

Sponsors of the Hurricane Ball was the Hurricane annual staff. Bob Harrelson, a JHS senior, and the Catalinas, from North Little Rock, provided the entertainment, and Mrs. Jane Steinegger was the Mistress of Ceremonies. The dance was given in the East School cafeteria, which was decorated in the Christmas motif. Beside a massive fireplace was a large decorated tree. As the beauties were announced, Mrs. Aston presented each beauty's escort with a stocking bearing her name lettered in glitter. These were hung on the chimney as each beauty took her place before the fireplace.

Dancing to the music of Bob Harrelson and the Catalinas, the students look forward to intermission.

Student for D.A.R. Award Chosen by Student Body.

On the basis of leadership, scholarship, dependability, and loyalty, the J.H.S. student body chose Sandra Johnson to receive the 1959 D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award. Sandra has proved to be a leader by serving as Sophomore class treasurer, Junior class vice-president, and treasurer of the band. Because of her scholastic ability and dependability, Sandra was inducted into the N.H.S. where she serves as vice-president. Loyalty to her school is evident because of her participation in various activities and her ability to do a job well.

JHS—19 BATESVILLE—0

The Golden Hurricane rambled to a comfortable 19-0 margin in the first game of the season over a good Batesville team on the Pioneer's home field. Sparkling defensive play highlighted the contest which started what Hurricane supporters expected to be a very exciting season.

JHS—13 STUTTGART—0

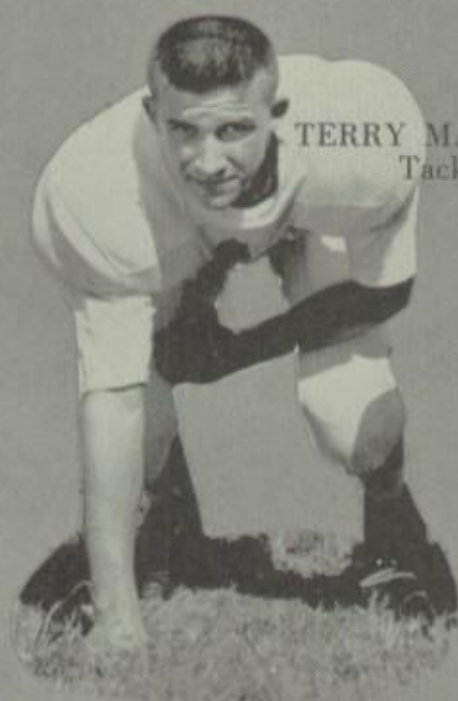

In the opening game of conference play the Hurricane surprised the favored Stuttgart Ricebirds with a combined effort by rolling to a 13-0 win. Chunky Bob Cameron and Mike Vinson scored the Jonesboro TD's with Mike Bridger converting a PAT.

JHS—6 NEWPORT—39

The Golden Gang opened its home season in a very valiant fashion. They were completely outmanned, though, by a very powerful Newport team. Bob Cameron, Jonesboro's All-State candidate, weaved 20 yards for the home team's only score. Final score 39-6.

JHS—0 WEST MEMPHIS—13

In the Golden Gladiator's second home game they contained a very strong West Memphis team although they went down to defeat 13-0. The Blue Devils, ranked 6th in the state, were held magnificently by the Hurricane and with a few breaks the game could have gone the other way.

JHS—7 BLYTHEVILLE—6

After a lapse of eight years, the grid rivalry with Blytheville was renewed as the Big Wind eked out a 7-6 win. The first half was all Blytheville's as they jumped to a 6-0 lead. In a tremendous comeback drive in the last period, however, climaxed by scrappy Bill Harris' TD jaunt, the Hurricane turned the tables on the Chicks. Chip Latourette split the uprights for the decisive point.

JHS—7 CONWAY—13

Playing greatly inspired football the Hurricane contained the highly ranked Conway Wampus Cats for three quarters before going down to defeat in a mud-splattered game at Kay's Field. A Bob Gibson to Gary Cole pass gave the Golden Gang its tallies.

JHS—0 Forrest City—47

Playing a team that completely out-classed them, the Golden Hurricane was swamped by the mighty Forrest City Mustangs 47-0. The stubborn Hurricane defense held the Mustangs to a 6-0 halftime lead. However, in the 2nd half the difference of the teams became obvious. The Golden Gang held on gallantly, but they couldn't stop the Mustangs.

JHS—13 Helena—6

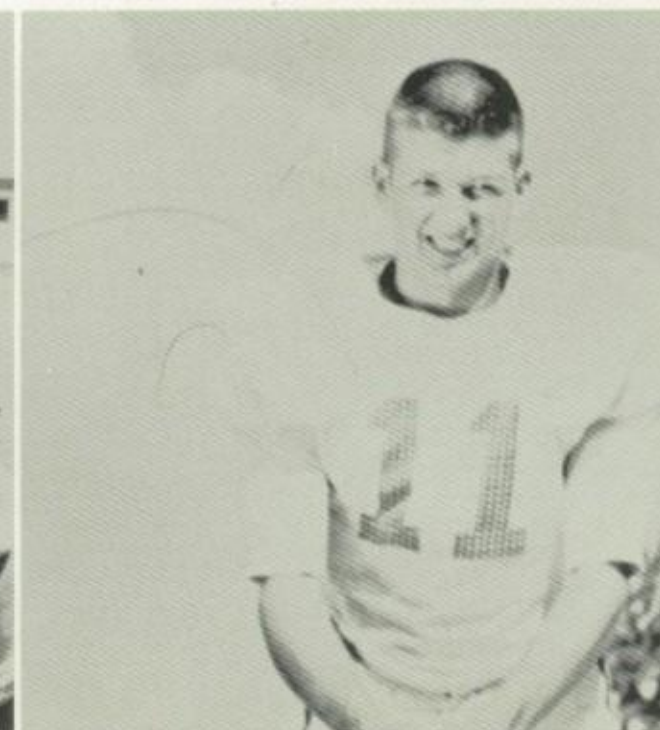

Playing in a continuous downpour of rain, the Hurricane beat the Helena Indians 13-6. At the half the Golden Gang trailed the Indians 6-0. But in the 3rd quarter Joel Mangrum recovered a Helena fumble. This ignited a drive that was climaxed by a TD by Bob Cameron who later scored again. Chip Latourette kicked one extra point.

JHS—21 Wynne—0

The unyielding defensive line of the Jonesboro Hurricane plus the brilliant passing of Bobby Gibson resulted in a 21-0 shut-out of the Wynne Yellow-jackets. The Jackets were held to a minus yardage by the stubborn Hurricane line. Gary Cole scored two touchdowns and Bill Harris the other. This win assured the gang of fourth place in the rugged Region 2AA.

JHS—27 Paragould—7

In the 52nd edition of the annual Thanksgiving game with Paragould, Jonesboro romped to a thrilling 27-7 win. Twelve seniors, who form the nucleus of this year's squad, ended their high school career. The Bulldogs were no match for the best Hurricane team in several years. Jonesboro ended the season with a 6-4 mark, the best since 1954.

Junior Varsity Coach, BUDDY BELL

The J.H.S. Junior Varsity enjoyed the most successful year of football in many years. Even though they were short on experience and size, they held their own against some very formidable opponents. The players acquired much knowledge and adeptness to be used in the making of next year's Hurricane. They ended the season on a good note by trouncing the Burdette team 27-7. These boys will be depended upon to a great extent in the future as J.H.S.'s Junior Varsity continues to build the Hurricane.

Up to publication date, Jonesboro has been very successful in local prep play with a 16-6 record. With four seasoned veterans forming the core of the squad, along with some hustling newcomers, the Hurricane is definitely a threat to take State laurels this year.

Hurricane Staff

And so another Hurricane comes to an end.

It's time to close the door on this year, but we can do it with a smile, for we know our memories can be revived each time we open this book. Open it often—today, tomorrow, twenty-five years from now. And may we realize that these years . . . perhaps “the best years” . . . have also been the formative years, the basic pattern for our lives.

The Hurricane's geometric design and simplicity are here to present a clear and modern picture of the life we lived at J.H.S. in 1958 and 1959. To complete the picture, we've added a supplement of spring activities, including the Prom and Graduation. The supplement will be received during the summer and can be fitted into the back of this Hurricane.

To the Seniors—Congratulations, good luck, and so long!

To those of you who are left—Keep on making these “the best years of your lives”!
